MICHAEL ENGBERG

MARY BETH CROSS

JON CHANDLER

Mary Beth Cross has the soul of a pioneer and the voice of an Appalachian angel. A Coloradan by way of Wisconsin, she writes and performs a genre-busting mix of bluegrass, folk, country and Americana music that fits perfectly with ASL's theme of the American Soul. Working with the finest musicians in the region, including Ernie Martinez and Johnny Neill, she crafts wonderful songs of the American West and Heartland.

Many Hats Music is the name of Michael Engberg's production company, and it fits him like a glove. Michael is a guitarist, a teacher, a troubadour and a songwriter who travels the country bringing his music to venues from coast to coast. A veteran recording artist, his recent CDs Collage and Collidoscope feature uniquely written and recorded songs spanning the Americana universe - Irish melodies, folk guitars and, of most importance, a country heart.
